NYUDO HIMON PARK/ SHINBAMA PARK

Miyajima, Fuji City
 The sluice gate here was built to prevent the overflow of the Nyudo River by tunneling along the bank. The most current gate was completed in 2000 but the 2 previous gates from 1934 and 1953 are also exhibited here, allowing visitors to feel the history of the Tagonoura Port area.

RYUO SHRINE

1391 Miyajima, Fuji City 〒416-0945
 Facing the Suruga Bay sits Ryuō Shrine. Although the correct name is Ryu Shrine, it is usually called Ryuō Shrine since eight dragon kings are enshrined here. Due to their association with the sea, they are respected by local fishermen as a symbol of safety and luck.

COASTAL CYCLE PATH

This route makes for a nice ride along the coast and connects Tagonoura Port Park with Ryuō Shrine and Nyudo Himon Park to the west.
